deep in the heart of seventh century arabia a new prophet named muhammad has arisen as his message of enlightenment sweeps through arabia and unifies the warring tribes his young wife aisha recounts muhammad s astonishing transformation from prophet to warrior to statesman but just after the moment of her husband s greatest triumph the conquest of the holy city of mecca muhammad falls ill and dies in aisha s arms a young widow aisha finds herself at the center of the new muslim empire and becomes by turns a teacher political leader and warrior written in beautiful prose and meticulously researched mother of the believer is the story of an extraordinary woman who was destined to help usher islam into the world the early twenty first century has experienced an unrivaled dissemination of information and misinformation about islam its prophet muhammad and its followers largely facilitated by the fact that the tragedy of 9 11 roughly coincided with the advent of the digital age in the first collection of its kind ruqayya khan has compiled essays that treat muhammad and the core elements of islam as focal points in an exploration of how the digital era including social media and other expressions have both had an effect on and been affected by islam scholars from a variety of fields deal with topics such as the 2005 cartoon controversy in denmark and the infamous 2012 movie trailer innocence of muslims that some believe sparked the attacks on the us consulate in benghazi as well as how the digitization of ancient texts have allowed the origins of islam to be studied in new ways other essays examine how muhammad s wives have been represented in various online sources including a web comic the contrasting depictions of muhammad as both a warrior and peacemaker and how the widespread distribution of the look of islamic terrorists has led to attacks on sikhs whose only point of resemblance to them may be a full beard these findings illuminate the role of the internet in forms of representation advocacy and engagement concerning islam and muslims in our world today
